10. Business

10.1 Flea Market Concessions – (August 2)

(Information taken directly from the ICC Concession Bid Form)

- ETC: Hello. Hi. We need club funds for our projects ie UAV airplane, quad copter and 1 or 2 other upcoming projects. There is also an event that we plan on doing in the upcoming year. Also pizza parties. Please like to eat food and we're hungry so feed us. But primarily the funds will be used for our projects. Thank you. ☺ <3
- CCPC: We did host the Cultural Night last May; therefore, we almost ran out the money we have. We need money for our club to be able to run next year. Our club meetings is about the different cultures around the world as well as offering kinds of international food that members could have a taste and discover the international diversity. Thus, we really need to raise our budget that we could be able to run the club activities next year. Please vote for us. We don't want our club stop running because we don't have money left.

Congratulations to ETC and CCPC for winning the August 2, 2014 Concession Bid!
ETC's concession starts at 8:00AM and CCPC's concession starts at 8:30AM

10.2 Flea Market Concessions – (September 6)

(Information taken directly from the ICC Concession Bid Form)

- FOS: In Fall Quarter, our club will need the funds for cooperating with a non-profit organization, called "For the Homeless." It's an organization that working in the 5th estate to serve the homeless community of the SF Bay area. The students of our club are going to get involved in 3 different meaningful activities that are in this organization. First is to distribute the meals for homeless people who live in camps or shelter in a food truck. Second, distribute the kits, which are filled with all the essentials from first aid kits with Clif Bars. Third, we will donate parts of the money for this organization, which needs supporting and more attention from society. We believe that's an organization that worthy to cooperate. We want to let the homeless people change their hopeless and negative mind through our lovely and kind students, and our club members would learn many positive principle through these volunteer activities.
- IYF: De Anza International Youth Fellowship Club is known for having (prop) programs, special events, and opportunities only for DA students but anyone who shares the same values as us. State thus, we need financial support to promote future activities like NU camp which focus on youth problems like drugs, violence, etc. The funds will also server as a contribution to support members who want to participate in these programs but lack financial resources to do so. Experience is the best teacher and the programs we hold allows members to be aware, collect memories, and build friendships that will help them become better individuals. So, please help us in acquiring this by providing us the resources! IYF thanks you in advance regardless! <3 ☺

Congratulations to FOS and IYF for winning the September 6, 2014 Concession Bid!
FOS's concession starts at 8:00AM and IYF's concession starts at 8:30AM
