Christopher “Vino” Cochico

I am running for the position of ICC Vice-Chair of Finance. I have several years of experience in leadership, finance, and production and currently seeking an opportunity to leverage my skills to contribute to the well-being and future of the students of De Anza Community College.

I held the positions of Studio and Front-end Manager at Feel Projection Dance Company. During my five years of occupancy, I organized finances and coordinate weekly and monthly classes with a diverse range of clientele. In addition, I coordinated small events such as dance jams and workshops.

My several years of hands-on experience helped me gain in-depth knowledge of back-end processes, organization, and interpersonal communication. I learned to work well under pressure, adhere to deadlines while maintaining a customer-centric approach. Through travelling across the Bay Area I was able to meet, work, and befriend people from different walks of life.

Equipped with more knowledge, understanding, humility, and compassion; I am confident that I will be a great addition to this team. I currently am both a founding and executive board member for Complex Dance Competition (2014) and Full Potential Dance Company (2015).

Jinbo Chen

Hello. First of all, thank you for this opportunity. My name is Jason, I am a cheerful personality, a wide range of hobbies' boy. I was in charge of public relation of one club, and I volunteered in Silicon Valley Bike Coalition office work before. I developed my ability to do things quickly and efficiently. Also developed a good ideological character. I am good at calculation as well, so I believe in myself that I can do well in casting accounts. I know that my knowledge is limited, and I sincerely hope that you can give me a chance. I will learn modestly in my future work, keep studying, accumulate work experience, and improve my workability. I hope you can trust me, if I can be elected, I will live up to the expectations, with my real strength and real performance, to verify whether you choose the right today.

Behind every successful student, there is always a strong foundation, whether it is academics or extra curriculars that fosters the student's choices and ideas to heighten the student's potential. I can wholeheartedly pledge that engaging in clubs and extracurriculars has heightened my leadership caliber, my analytical and communication skill set. In my high school years, I was the president of the physics and astronomy club, a co-chair for the charity club and a senior coordinator for the Red Cross club. I loved how each and every one of these clubs helped me to explore my capabilities and grow as a person. ICC at De Anza allows every student from any walk of life to join a club that best represents them or create one that allows them and others like them to give more to the community. This is the reason why I chose to run for Vice Chair of Programs. Sheryl Sandberg once said, "It is the ultimate luxury to combine passion and contribution." I am a passionate leader and an advocate for diversity, inclusivity and any work that brings about positive change to the De Anza Community.

Stanley Dao

Life for me is a small town of Montgomery, Texas. Growing up, my relative liberty and understanding of leadership were largely unapparent to me. While I attended High School, I helped establish HOSA and was very active in the NHS, Mu Alpha Theta, and Academic Decathlon. I also attended A&M's prospective engineering student's club after a recommendation from my Chemistry teacher. After being exposed on how their engineers separate the pollutants from water, I began to have a passion to create projects that promote sustainability and safety. Although I was very active during this time frame, I felt that I wasn't committed to procedures of self-development and was without intrinsic motivation to dedicate myself due to a fear of failure. Despite my comfortable cultivation, I inherited a great interest in exploring the world and to learn the many perspectives the world has to offer. After attending De Anza College for almost 3 years, I have developed a refined set of personal, academic, and professional ideals. Being the VP for APASL at De Anza, my inclination of leadership and prosperity have evolved over the years and serves as a reminder of an unearned privilege; a privilege I hope inspire others.

Afroze Khan

Dear ICC,

I am applying for the position of Vice Chair of Program because I love De Anza and want to help provide events and opportunities for students that feel like they don't have a community here yet. I believe that I am a good fit for this position because from working an internship and working as a private tutor for 2 years, I have developed strong organizational and planning skills as well as interpersonal skills.

I know some people complain that community college is boring because they don't know how to get involved on campus. However, at De Anza, clubs are diverse and well advertised; there are several events on campus each year including mixers and the Spring Carnival. I know how important club involvement is because I have made friends by going to club meetings or participating in campus events, meeting people that have similar career goals or special interests. I want to implement a campus-wide club fundraiser event and integrate clubs into events such as finals de-stress week. I want to be part of this team that regulates how we manage the clubs and events that enrich the De Anza experience and make our campus feel like home.

“Sam” Yuanzhe Tong

Hi Everyone, My name is Yuanzhe Tong, but you can call me Sam. This is my second quarter with ICC. I have attended all ICC meeting and fully understand what officers' responsibility. I am highly qualified because I have previous experience as a club officer, I am really open minded to listen to all suggestions and I will do my best to work with other officers and I have been to multiple events and I been involved in multiple events, I am an extrovert person and like to help people.

Marketing

“Kelly” Qianru Wang

My name is Kelly Wang and I'm major in Economics, and I want to apply for the vice chair of marketing. Since I attend the ICC meeting every week, so I have a good understanding of the contents and processes of the meeting. I'm the promoter of our class in high school and I can design the poster, flyer and so on. In addition, I'm good at photography, retouch pictures and drawing, so I think I can handle this work. Then, this is a precious opportunity for me to improve my various abilities such as coordination, communication, organization and so on. ICC is a team, no one can do the work well alone, so coordination is so important. And I can get along with others well and I'm good at listening. If I can get this position, I will try my best to promote every event of ICC and clubs, and inform them the information as soon as possible. I will let this department and the whole ICC become better.
