Public Comments

Lydia Hearn: They voted on Academic Senate to fund two students who plan on attending the Statewide Academic Senate, April 27-29. She is looking for students to attend this meeting. She also thanked the Senate on the Honors Program funding. There will be pot luck at her house this Friday.

She can be reached at hearnlydia@deanza.edu

Scott: He is a member of a new club called World Peace Buddhist founded a quarter ago. It was suggested that there should be a peace room for students to compose themselves on De Anza College.

Burning Issues

London Choi: There was a message written in the lounge that was erased and that people should not erase messages since they could be important.

Yessenia Ramirez: She lost a folder in the Senate office and that if anyone finds it to please show it to her, turn it in her mailbox, or turn it in the Lost and Found.

Anna Callahan: Mentions that she wants Senate to arrive at the Student Council Chamber five minutes prior to the meeting being called to order.
