De Anza College Overview

De Anza College offers a broad range of academic and career programs, cultural activities, sports and social events to about 24,000 students each quarter. Students can earn associate degrees in 63 fields of study and 102 certificates of achievement. About 40,000 friends and neighbors participate in De Anza's Community Education programs each year, including noncredit Short Courses and the Extended Year Summer Enrichment Program for youth.

Students attending De Anza enjoy the full college experience. They can join a club or start a new one; walk through time at the California History Center; visit the stars at the Fujitsu Planetarium at De Anza College; explore the diversified ecosystems of the Cheeseman Environmental Study Area; exercise in the Lifetime Fitness and Wellness Center between classes; or participate on a sports team – there are plenty to choose from. An education at De Anza isn't just about books and tests; students also discover a diversity of people representing cultures from around the world and learn how to become fully engaged, politically aware citizens. The college's Institute of Community and Civic Engagement (ICCE) helps to advance this goal.

Learning at De Anza College happens in state-of-the-art facilities, many funded through voter-approved Measures E and C. The college is committed to environmental sustainability in building design and operations.

De Anza consistently ranks among the top California community colleges in the number of transfers to CSU and UC. De Anza's top transfer institutions include UC Berkeley, UC Santa Cruz, UC Davis and UC San Diego as well as San José State University and San Francisco State University.

Special Awards

DeHart Memorial Scholarship

Yin Chun Alan Cheng is the recipient of this year's $2,000 A. Robert DeHart memorial Scholarship for Service. He graduates with a 4.0 GPA and will attend UC Berkeley this fall, majoring in business administration.

Cheng served as president of Hong Kong's Raimondi College Student Union, chair of the Raimondi College Graduation Committee, Chief Scout's Award Bearer for the Scout Association of Hong Kong, and was a global scholar at the Global Young Leaders Conference (GYLC). Sponsored by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, GYLC offers students from countries all over the world the unique opportunity to interact with each other and explore global leadership issues. At De Anza he served on the Campus Center Board and the DASB Elections Committee, chaired the Inter Club Council, and was a global scholar in the International Student Laureate Program, part of the Golden Key International Honor Society.

The annual scholarship is presented in memory of A. Robert DeHart, founding president of De Anza College. It is awarded to a graduate who exemplifies service and participates in campus life relating to his or her personal values and goals.

President's Awards

Zahra Abdulrazak of Santa Clara will attend UC Davis in the fall, where she will major in biochemistry. After the death in 2005 of her physician uncle and his wife and son in Baghdad, Abdulrazak fled with her family to Jordan, and then to the United States. At De Anza, Abdulrazak was a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society and the Muslim Students Association (MSA). She volunteers at the MSA's weekend Islamic School, teaching Arabic language and Islamic studies for children.

Abdulrazak served on a first aid team in Iraq in 2003. She wants to be a doctor and continue her uncle's mission of helping the community by healing people's wounds.

Alondra Juarez, who lives in San José, will attend San José State University in the fall, where she will major in Political Science and African American studies. Juarez has served as secretary and president of MEChA (Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlán) at De Anza, a member of LEAD (Latina/o Empowerment at De Anza), and volunteers with the United Farm Workers (UFW), the Sacred Heart Community Center and the Center for Farmworker Families.

Juarez wants to become a political science and African American studies teacher at De Anza because the college is committed to engaging its students in their education and their communities.

The President's Awards, worth $2,000 each, are presented annually to two graduating students who have overcome significant adversity or obstacles and have shown great perseverance in seeking an education at De Anza.

Academic Regalia

The academic costume worn today can be traced back to the European universities of the 12th and 13th centuries, where scholars and clerics wore hoods and robes to stay warm in unheated buildings. Use of the academic gown came to the United States in 1754 with the founding of what is now Columbia University. Until after the Civil War, students at most universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence.

Academic dress consists of the cap, gown and hood. The mortarboard is a head-hugging cap topped with a square flat surface from which a tassel hangs. Styling of the gown varies according to the degree of the wearer. An associate's degree gown displays the college colors. A bachelor's degree holder wears a simple black gown with long, pointed sleeves. Those with a master's degree wear a more elaborate gown with slit openings in the sleeves. The doctoral gown has bell-shaped sleeves, velvet panels down the front and around the neck, and three velvet bars on each sleeve. In the hoods, the color of the velvet border indicates the type of degree held, while the color of the lining designates the official colors of the institution granting it.
